The Rex and Ken – Pride of Scotts Forgotten Heroes- Scholarship

Due Date: March 4, 2022

A graduate of the Scotts High School class of 1942, Francis Max Smith, known to his friends as “Smitty,” wanted to create a lasting tribute to two “brave young farm boys”, Rex Smith, Smitty’s little brother, and Ken Snyder, Smitty’s best friend, who lost their lives in service to their Country. Max Smith’s greatest desire was for young people of this generation to remember and HONOR those who gave their lives for this Country, and to understand the sacrifices of these two young men and those like them who never had the opportunity to pursue higher education or a special trade. To honor their memories, Max Smith endowed a scholarship through the Kalamazoo Regional Educational Service Agency Foundation before he passed away in 2015. Only students attending Climax-Scotts are eligible to apply and receive this special scholarship.

To apply for this scholarship, please write a thank you letter to Ms. Patricia Smith, Mr. Smith’s daughter, as if you were one of the winners of this special scholarship. Please attach the cover sheet to your letter. In your letter you should include:

- Why you are grateful for this opportunity.
- How you plan to serve your Country and/or community, as well as, how you have already served your Country and/or community. Examples might include, but are not limited to: your future profession, your work ethic and how you plan to give back to your Country and/or community in general if given this opportunity.
- Your future plans (what do you plan to study, where, why did you choose what you did, etc.? If you are undecided, how do you think you will spend your next few years in order to decide?).
- Why you think it is special that Mr. Smith created a scholarship in honor of his younger brother and best friend, so that you could have this opportunity.

If you’d like to know more about Mr. Smith and his story, to help you better write a thank you to her (which we will forward to his daughter, should you receive this award), see:

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
