Young Adult Program

Preparing all Students to Thrive

CONTINUUM OF SERVICES

ADULT LIVING COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION

EMPLOYMENT

FUNCTIONAL COMMUNICATION

SAFETY

SELF-ADVOCACY

SOCIAL SKILLS

WEST CAMPUS

Develop skills for meaningful participation in life.

- Functional communication
- Activities of daily living
- Volunteer participation

Build skills for supported independence at home and in the community.

- Build personal strategies to increase independence
- Volunteer participation and job exploration

Practice skills for independence at home, in the community, and at work.

- Practice skills with monitored independence
- Work-based learning and volunteer experiences

COMMUNITY CLASSROOMS

Apply skills for independence at home, in the community, and at work.

- Use transportation independently
- Work-based learning

Use skills for independence in the community and at work.

- One-year internship
- Last year of services.
- Competitive employment upon exit